Making a complaint

Introduction

The University of Central Lancashire is committed to providing high quality education and other services to its students. Our aim is to provide a supportive environment including academic, welfare and recreational services and to be responsive to concerns when they are raised.

Feedback from students is welcomed as part of the University's approach to the development and enhancement of the quality of its services. There are many local routes whereby concerns and issues can be raised and addressed and you are encouraged to make full use of these routes. In particular, you should ensure that you are familiar with the quality assurance procedures that exist within academic schools and are described within Student Handbooks.

The University does, however, recognise that there may be occasions when you have cause for complaint about the service you have received, when this happens, the Student Complaints Procedure is intended to provide an accessible, fair and straightforward system which ensures an effective, prompt and appropriate response.

The University aims to handle complaints in a way that:

- encourages informal conciliation and facilitates early resolution;
- ensures a full and fair investigation;
- addresses all the points at issue and provides an effective response and appropriate redress;
- provides a prompt resolution within established timescales;
- positive actions can be taken to continuously improve services.

I hope that you will have a positive and rewarding experience at the University. If, however, concerns are brought to our attention, you can be assured that they will be treated in a serious and constructive manner and every effort will be made to ensure a satisfactory resolution.

Michael Thomas
Vice-Chancellor

What is a complaint?

A complaint is defined as an expression of dissatisfaction by one or more students about any programme of study or related facility or any other service provided by or on behalf of the University, which has materially affected the student's experience as a student at the University. This Procedure does not apply where there are separate mechanisms in place:

- * Appeals Against Assessment Board Decisions, contact Academic Registry;
- Complaints about the Students' Union, contact the Students' Union;
- Staff Grievances, contact Human Resources;
- Public Interest Disclosure, for contact details please refer to the University Public Interest Disclosure Policy;
- Freedom of Information or Data Protection, contact the Information Governance Officer;
- Use of CCTV Equipment, contact Facilities Management;
- Appeals or Complaints relating to the admissions process, contact Admissions Office;
- Complaints about student conduct, contact Academic Registry;
- Dissatisfaction with the outcome of any student procedure or the Academic Regulations – refer to the relevant Appeals Procedure;
- Complaints from clients of other University services who are not current or former students, contact relevant Head of School/Service.
- Complaints or concerns about research ethics, contact the University Officer for Ethics at officeforethics@uclan.ac.uk.

*This Procedure will not be used for matters relating to assessment performance and academic judgement, except where there is a complaint about a service provided which has to be resolved before an appeal decision can be made. The University reserves the right to reclassify a complaint as an academic appeal or vice versa, if the submission falls properly within the remit of one procedure rather than the other, or to consider matters together if there is good reason to do so.

NB: The Student Complaints Procedure can be used to appeal all decisions made by the University save as where they come within the categories excluded in the list above. Where the decision has been made subject to a University policy e.g. Rules for the Use of the Library and the right of appeal contained within that policy has been exhausted, if pursued under this policy the complaint will proceed straight to Stage 3. The complaint must be made within 15 working days of the outcome of the decision and must be based on one or more of the grounds set out in the Stage 3 section below.

Complaints against senior members of the University

In the event of a complaint being made against a member of the Directorate or the University Board, all complaints should be in writing and addressed to the Vice-Chancellor. Any complaint against the Vice-Chancellor should be in writing and addressed to the Clerk to the University Board, who will determine how to deal with the complaint.

Who can complain?

Any registered student who directly seeks or receives a service from the University may lodge a complaint under this Procedure. Students who have been granted an authorised interruption to study, or who have been temporarily suspended or excluded from the University, may also use this Procedure. Former students may complain within a reasonable time period, normally 3 calendar months from leaving the University.

Matters of concern may be raised individually or collectively and students should feel assured that they will not encounter any disadvantage having lodged a complaint in good faith.

Where complaints are raised collectively, the complaint should include a signed statement from all parties confirming that they have been materially affected by the alleged incident and authorising the University to correspond with a single named spokesperson.

Students registered for a University award at a partner institution who are dissatisfied with the provision at the partner institution, should pursue their complaint in accordance with the partner institution's procedure in the first instance. In the event of dissatisfaction upon exhaustion of the partner institution's procedure, students will be entitled to submit their complaint to the University under stage 3 of this Procedure within 15 working days of the date of the partner institution's final response.

Anonymous or third party complaints will not be dealt with under this Procedure, except in exceptional circumstances. It is at the discretion of the University as to how these are handled e.g. the University may initiate enquiries where it considers there is a compelling case supported by evidence

Vexatious, malicious or frivolous complaints

The University may decline to deal with complaints which are vexatious, malicious or frivolous.

A complaint may be considered to be vexatious when it may or may not be the latest in a series of requests and it:

- clearly does not have any serious purpose or value;
- is designed to cause disruption or annoyance, or gives rise to disproportionate inconvenience or expense;
- has the effect of harassing the University and/or its staff;
- can otherwise fairly be characterised as obsessive or manifestly unreasonable.

A complaint may be considered to be malicious where:

- there is evidence of intention to do harm or mischief;
- it is reasonable to assume that the complainant intended to do harm or mischief;
- malice may be implied where e.g. it is clear that no redress is sought.

A complaint may be considered to be frivolous where:

- it is clear that is not serious or sensible in content, attitude or behaviour;
- there is an absence of clear desire for a sensible or reasonable form of redress.

Where there is reason to believe that a complaint is vexatious, malicious or frivolous, the matter will be referred to the Head of Academic Quality and Compliance who, with advice from the University Solicitor where appropriate, may decide to reject the complaint without full consideration of its merits. Reasons will be given as to why the complaint is considered to be an abuse of process. The University may also invoke the Regulations for the Conduct of Students.

The student may appeal against a decision to reject his or her complaint as an abuse of process by writing to the Academic Registrar within 5 working days of the decision. The Academic Registrar will consider the appeal and will notify the student of his or her decision within 15 working days. If the original decision is upheld, a Completion of Procedures letter will be issued.

Students should also note appendix 1 which sets out the University's approach when dealing with unacceptable behaviour by a complainant.

Advice and Support

Advice on the scope and operation of this Procedure may be obtained from the Complaint Liaison Officers in the Academic Registry. (tel. 01772 89 2406/2407/2408 or e-mail CLiaison@uclan.ac.uk).

Students may seek independent advice and support throughout this Procedure from the Students' Union Advice and Representation Centre, see www.uclansu.co.uk/advice.

Staff in the 'I' can also provide general support and guidance and can assist with access to specialist services in Student Support and Wellbeing, including counselling, disability services and study support, see <https://www.uclan.ac.uk/students/>

Where a student has declared a disability to the University, all endeavours will be made to ensure that information is available in appropriate formats and reasonable adjustments are made to the proceedings and facilities to accommodate their needs.

All stages of this Procedure are internal proceedings. These proceedings are intended to be fair and to comply with the rules of natural justice, and should not be adversarial or overly legalistic. There is no need for anyone to have formal legal representation.

Anyone who lodges a complaint or against whom a complaint is made will be entitled to be accompanied by a person of their choosing at any stage in the Procedure. Students may seek representation from the Students' Union Advice and Representation Centre or may choose to be accompanied by a friend. There is no objection if the person is legally qualified, so long as that person understands and respects the nature of the proceedings and does not adopt an overly adversarial or legalistic stance. Students who lodge a complaint may not be represented in their absence, unless there are exceptional reasons (such as a health condition) which mean this is necessary.

Confidentiality

Confidentiality will be preserved during the investigation of a complaint to safeguard the interests of everyone concerned unless disclosure is necessary to progress the complaint. The University expects that all parties will respect the confidentiality of the process.

Any individual about whom a complaint is made will have the right to be informed of the fact and nature of the complaint by their line manager.

Actions

In the case of all complaints, the University seeks to ensure that appropriate and reasonable action is taken. Where a complaint is found to be justified in full or in part, any appropriate remedial action will be notified as part of the decision. If a complaint is found to be not justified at any stage, the reasons for the decision will be communicated, together with details of any further recourse that is available via this Procedure or the Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education.

Investigations will normally be conducted during semester time. If, in exceptional circumstances, the investigation of a complaint requires a student's attendance at the University during the vacation period, reasonable out-of-pocket expenses will be reimbursed.

References in this Procedure to a post-holder (e.g. Dean/Head of School) include a nominee acting on behalf of that post-holder. The University will ensure that anyone investigating or deciding on a complaint has had no prior involvement in the complaint.

All action under this Procedure will normally cease on receipt of formal correspondence from a solicitor on behalf of the student, or on the instigation of legal proceedings against the University in relation to the matters complained about.

Time Limits

Complaints should be raised as early as possible, since any delay may affect the University's ability to properly investigate the complaint or provide an appropriate remedy. It is important that students do all they can to meet the University's deadlines for the submission of complete and detailed material, so that complaints can be progressed as quickly as possible.

Stage 1

Complaints should normally be raised with the relevant member of staff immediately where possible, and normally not later than 10 working days after the incident giving rise to the complaint.

Stage 2

Stage 2 complaints should normally be lodged within 15 working days of the Stage 1 response or within 15 working days of the incident giving rise to the complaint.

Stage 3

Stage 3 complaints should normally be lodged within 15 working days of the Stage 2 response from the University or the final response from the partner institution.

Former Students

Former students may complain within a reasonable time period. Normally, this will be within 3 calendar months of leaving the University.

The University will exercise discretion where there is good reason for a complaint to be submitted outside these time limits.

It is the University's aim that all complaints are dealt with in a timely manner, in particular where the nature of the complaint requires swift action. There will occasionally be circumstances when, for good reason, the University will need to extend the timescales set out in this Procedure. Where this is the case, students will be informed and kept regularly updated about progress.

Monitoring the Process

In order that the University can improve services to students, the receipt of formal (stage 2 and 3) complaints and responses will be monitored, including the timescales. A report on the outcome of the monitoring process will be made annually to the Student Experience Committee of Academic Board. This will enable the University to continuously improve its services and ensure an inclusive, consistent and constructive approach to complaints. The effectiveness of the Student Complaints Procedure will also be kept under review and, where appropriate, changes will be made.

PROCEDURE

Stage 1 – Informal Stage

It is anticipated that the majority of complaints will be resolved satisfactorily on an informal basis and close to their point of origin. However, the University recognises that there may be exceptional circumstances where this is not appropriate, in particular where the issues are complex and will require detailed investigation e.g. where a complaint relates to the conduct of staff members or covers a number of different incidents. In these circumstances, a formal Stage 2 complaint should normally be made within 15 working days of the alleged incident or concern.

In most cases, therefore, initial contact should be made with the relevant member of staff who is responsible for dealing on a day-to-day basis with the matter being complained about. For example, if the complaint refers to an academic matter, the first point of contact should normally be the module tutor, personal tutor or course leader. A complaint may also be informally raised with another senior member of staff. Initial contact can also be by a spokesperson on behalf of a group including by the Students' Union Advice and Representation Centre (and at this stage of the procedure would not require a signed statement from the individuals concerned).

In order that a complaint can be dealt with effectively and efficiently, it should be drawn to the attention of the relevant member of staff immediately where possible and in any event normally not later than 10 working days after the incident giving rise to the complaint.

At this stage, the relevant member of staff will normally discuss the complaint with you and other persons involved and make any other enquiries as s/he sees fit, to determine whether it can be resolved without recourse to more formal procedures.

A written record of the outcome will normally be sent to you within 10 working days. This will be notified to the Dean/Head of School or Head of Service where the effectiveness of the School/Service could be improved, and may also be referred to in the event that the complaint is progressed to stage 2. Where informal resolution is not appropriate or possible, you will be directed to the formal stage below.

Stage 2 – Formal Stage

If, having pursued the matter informally, you are still dissatisfied; you may pursue the matter through the formal stage within 15 working days of the informal response being given.

There may be circumstances where it is appropriate to progress directly to the formal stage 2, in particular where the issues are complex and will require detailed investigation e.g. where a complaint relates to the conduct of staff members or covers a number of different incidents. In these circumstances, a formal complaint should normally be made within 15 working days of the alleged incident or concern.

Your complaint should be submitted in writing to the Complaint Liaison Officer in the Academic Registry, using the Stage 2 Complaint Form at appendix 1. Where complaints are raised collectively at this stage, the complaint should include a signed statement from all parties confirming that they have been materially affected by the alleged incident and authorising the University to correspond with a single named spokesperson.

The Stage 2 Complaint Form requires details of: the nature of the complaint; the informal steps taken to resolve it (or the reasons why informal steps have not been taken) and a statement as to why you remain dissatisfied; and the reasonable steps that you would wish to see taken to resolve the matter. Appropriate evidence should be appended e.g. copies of relevant letters, e-mails, signed witness statements and any other supporting documentation.

The Complaint Liaison Officer will acknowledge your complaint and determine if it is eligible to proceed to the formal stage or whether it should be referred to a different procedure or to the informal/stage 1 or rejected because it is submitted outside the published timeframes without good reason.

If the complaint is eligible to proceed to the formal/stage 2, it will be passed to the relevant Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service to deal with. If the complaint is about a Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service, the appropriate Line Manager will be instructed.

The Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service will investigate the complaint. S/he will gather and consider any relevant evidence and will ask to meet with you where s/he considers that it would be helpful, in particular, if it is a serious or complex case e.g. if it relates to the conduct of staff members or covers a number of different incidents.

You will also have the right to request a meeting with the Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service if you so wish.

You may be accompanied by a friend for support who may be a member of the Students' Union Advice and Representation Centre. At the meeting you will be invited to present your case and will be given the opportunity to amplify your written case and to submit copies of any supporting evidence e.g. copies of e-mails.

The aim of the meeting will be:

- to clarify the issues that are to be investigated within the scope of the Complaints Procedure;
- to clarify the reasonable measures that you would wish to see taken to resolve your complaint;
- to ensure that where appropriate, any immediate steps are taken to address your concerns;
- to ensure that where appropriate, you are aware of relevant University support services;
- to clarify the process and the anticipated timescale for a written response and your right to request a review under stage 3 if you are dissatisfied with the stage 2 outcome.

A formal record of the meeting will be taken and a copy will normally be sent to you within 5 working days with a request for you to sign and return the record with any comments. The formal record may be disclosed to any other person(s) named in the complaint or any other relevant parties.

The Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service will issue a formal written response with copies of the relevant supporting information that was considered during the investigation.

It is the University's aim that complaints dealt with under stage 2 will be resolved within 25 working days. You will be informed if there is likely to be any delay in the process.

All formal/stage 2 complaints and responses will be monitored by the Complaint Liaison Officers.

Stage 3 –Review Stage

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome at stage 2, you may submit a request for a review of the decision of the Dean/Head of School/Director/Head of Service or the Complaints Panel under stage 3 of the Complaints Procedure.

Stage 3 may only be invoked where the preceding stage 2 has been completed (or when the procedures at the partner institution have been exhausted). The purpose of stage 3 is to review the action(s) and decision(s) taken at the previous stage(s). No new complaints may be introduced at stage 3. Students are strongly advised to seek advice from the Students' Union Advice and Representation Centre before progressing to stage 3.

A request for a review should be submitted to the Complaint Liaison Officer using the Stage 3 Complaint Form at appendix 2 within 15 working days of the date of the stage 2 response (or the response from the partner institution) and must be based on one (or more) of the following grounds:

- a. that new evidence or circumstances have become known, which the student could not have reasonably made known at the time of the stage 2 complaint;
- b. that stage 2 of this Procedure was not conducted fairly and/or in accordance with due process, and this materially affected the outcome;
- c. that the decision and outcome of the stage 2 complaint were unreasonable in the light of the evidence provided.

The Stage 3 Complaint Form also requires details of: the nature of the complaint; the steps already taken to resolve it and a statement as to why you remain dissatisfied; and the reasonable steps that you would wish to see taken to resolve the matter. Appropriate evidence should be appended e.g. copies of relevant letters, e-mails, signed witness statements and any other supporting documentation.

The stage 3 review will be carried out by a Complaint Review Panel (the Panel) comprising three members as follows: the Vice-Chancellor's nominee who shall act as Chair; a member of staff who is Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service who is not associate with the School/Service concerned; a student who shall normally be an elected member of the Students' Union. Members of the Panel will have had no previous involvement in the complaint.

The Panel will review the case and may request further information from the student and/or the School/Service (or partner institution). Any new information will be provided to the student and the School/Service before a decision is made. The Panel will consider whether, in particular: the relevant procedures were followed at stage 2; the outcome was reasonable in all the circumstances; clear reasons were given for the stage 2 outcomes; there are valid reasons for the late submission of new evidence. The Reviewer will decide on the appropriate action of:

- i. dismissing the request for a review; or
- ii. convening a hearing to hear the case by the student and the response by the Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service;
- iii. upholding the request for a review and determining the outcome of the complaint, including any actions to be taken by the relevant School/Service; or
- iv. referring all or part of the complaint back for reconsideration at stage 2, by the same or a different Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service.

The decision and outcome of the stage 3 complaint will be communicated by the Chair of the Panel to the student and the Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service in writing, normally within 15 working days of receiving the request for a review.

Independent Review

A Completion of Procedures letter will be issued within 5 working days of the decision and outcome of the stage 3 complaint. This will state that in the event of dissatisfaction with the stage 3 outcomes, you are entitled to pursue the matter further by submitting a Scheme Application form to the Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education (OIA). A Scheme Application form must be submitted within 12 months of the date of the Completion of Procedures Letter. You can check whether your complaint is eligible under the rules of the OIA by visiting <http://www.oiahe.org.uk>

Further Information

The Complaint Forms for all stage 2 and stage 3 complaints are attached at appendices 1 and 2. Additional copies are available at all Hub and Service offices, at the main reception points of all University sites and in the Students' Union Advice and Representation Centre.

The Complaint Forms can also be completed on-line for submission to the Complaint Liaison Officer who will refer the matter to the relevant Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service. The Complaint Forms are available at:

Appendix 3

Notes for Guidance on the Conduct of a Stage 3 Complaint Hearing

1. Purpose

In very serious or complex cases the University may decide to convene a Complaints Panel to hear the complaint at stage 3 of the Student Complaints Procedure.

This will involve hearing the case by the Student and the response from the Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service.

2. The Complaints Panel

The Vice-Chancellor shall appoint a Complaint Review Panel (the Panel) comprising:

- (i) the Vice-Chancellor's nominee (Chair):
- (ii) a member of staff who is a Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service who is not associated with the School or Service concerned;
- (iii) a student member: normally an elected member of the Students' Union Student Affairs Committee.

No member of the Panel shall have been previously associated with the complaint.

3. Notice of a Stage 3 Complaint Hearing

The student will be given 15 working days' notice of the hearing date and will be notified of his/her right to be accompanied by a friend who may be an employee of the Students' Union Advice and Representation Centre.

The student will be invited to submit a one page summary/chronology of the complaint and any further documents on which he or she relies, including witness statements, by no less than 7 working days before the hearing. The relevant Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service¹ will prepare a response to the complaint, including any documents upon which he or she seeks to rely, and will forward this to the Complaints Liaison Officer. The Complaints Liaison Officer will circulate copies of all documentation to the Panel and both parties not less than 3 working days before the hearing.

Where the complaint is about a member of staff, the response of the member of staff may be incorporated in the response of the Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service.

4. Conduct of a Stage 3 Complaint Hearing

The following procedure will normally apply at a stage 3 hearing:

- (i) The Chair will invite all those present to introduce themselves and will explain the purpose of the hearing.
- (ii) The student (or representative) will present the complaint.
- (iii) The Panel and the Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service will have the opportunity to question the student.
- (iv) The Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service will present the response.
- (v) The Panel and the student (or representative) will have the opportunity to question the Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service.
- (vi) The Panel may ask questions of either party at any stage during the hearing.
- (vii) Summing up by the student (or representative).

¹ or, if the complaint is about the Dean of School or Director/Head of Service, the relevant Line Manager

- (viii) Summing up by the Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service.
- (ix) The Panel may, at its discretion, depart from the normal procedure, if it appears to be in the interest of fairness to do so.
- (x) The Panel may: retire to consider its decision; or seek further information; and/or adjourn to a later date.

The Complaints Liaison Officer will act as advisor to the Panel.

5. Documentation and Witnesses

The Panel may request additional documentation from either party either before or at the hearing.

Otherwise additional documentary evidence, other than that which was submitted by the student and that included in the bundle prepared by the Dean of School or Director/Head of Service under paragraph 3 above, will be admitted only at the discretion of the Panel.

The student and the Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service are entitled to submit any statements by witnesses in writing. Witnesses may be invited to give evidence in person at the discretion of the Panel.

6. Conclusion

The Panel may decide:

- (i) that the complaint is justified in full or in part and that the School/Service should implement recommendations; or
- (ii) that the complaint should be rejected.

The Panel may also recommend any changes to University policies and procedures.

Any conclusions or recommendations will be communicated by the Chair of the Panel to the student and the Dean/Head of School or Director/Head of Service in writing, normally within 5 working days of the hearing.

Policy on Unacceptable Complainant Behaviour

1. This Policy sets out the University's approach to the relatively few complainants whose actions or behaviour it considers to be unacceptable. The term complainant includes any person acting on behalf of a student or who contacts the University in connection with a complaint.
2. The University understands that making a complaint can be a stressful experience for students, however, we also have a duty to ensure the safety and welfare of our staff.
3. The University is committed to dealing with all complainants fairly and impartially and to providing a high quality service, but we do not expect staff to tolerate behaviour which we consider to be unacceptable, for example, any communication which is:
 - abusive, offensive, defamatory or distressing; -
 - aggressive, threatening, coercive or intimidating;
 - unreasonably persistent or demanding.
4. The University will take action to protect staff from such behaviour, and this may include action under the University's Regulations for the Conduct of Students.
5. Complainants can contact the University by letter, e-mail or telephone. We cannot correspond with anyone who is not confirmed in writing as the representative of the complainant.
6. When the University considers that the behaviour of a complainant is unacceptable, we will tell them why we find their behaviour unacceptable and we will ask them to change it. If the unacceptable behaviour continues, we will take action to restrict their contact in connection with the complaint.
7. The decision to restrict access will be taken by the Academic Registrar (or nominee), with advice from the University Solicitor where appropriate. Any restrictions imposed will be appropriate and proportionate. The University will take account of any reasonable adjustments as a consequence of any declared disability. The options which will be considered are:
 - asking the complainant to enter into an agreement about their conduct;
 - requesting contact in a particular form e.g. letters only;
 - requiring contact to take place with a named person;
 - restricting telephone calls to specified days and times;
 - asking the complainant to appoint a representative to correspond with us;
 - in exceptional circumstances, invoking the procedures for malicious, vexatious or frivolous complaints as set out in the Student Complaints Procedure.
8. We will write to tell the complainant why we believe their behaviour is unacceptable, what action we are taking and the duration of that action.
9. Where a complainant behaves unacceptably during a telephone conversation, we may as a last resort terminate the call.
10. Where a complainant continues to behave in a way which we consider to be unacceptable, we may decide to terminate contact with them. This may mean that we will not continue with the handling of their complaint.
11. Where the behaviour threatens the safety and welfare of University staff and/or students, we will consider other options, e.g. action under the University's Regulations for the Conduct of Students (including suspension from the campus), reporting the matter to the police, and/or taking other legal action.

This Policy and its implementation will be reviewed annually by the Student Experience Committee.
